Cornwall Youth Brass Band Player Auditions

Cornwall Youth Brass Band is currently auditioning for the coming season and invites applications from young brass and percussion players.

The Band (CYBB) was founded in 1955, held its first residential course four years later and is still going strong. With members drawn from bands across Cornwall, applicants have the opportunity of joining our courses and playing under some of the top names in the Brass Band World.

These are the sort of things that past members have said about the Band:

“Without the Cornwall Youth Brass Band I would not be the player I am today and would not have had the wonderful experiences that have come my way.”

“I have benefited enormously from playing different styles of music and working with brilliant guest conductors and soloists on our Christmas and Easter courses.”

So, if the idea appeals to you, or someone you know, then take a look at the joining details, application forms, and audition arrangement. They can be found on our website, www.cybb.co.uk or by contacting Robert Kitchen on 01752 847627 mail@rgckitchen.eclipse.co.uk.

Act now to secure your place in the band

Even if you think you are not ready to take an audition you can still register an interest for the future. Simply use the “I’m interested form” on the website and send it to Robert Kitchen. We will let you know about our Open Days – when you can hear the band rehearsing, meet tutors and see what a course is like – as well as putting you on our mailing list for Newsletters and reminding you about future auditions.
