26th August 2019

To All Old Cornwall Societies

The Federation of Old Cornwall Societies invites all society members to this year's Winter Festival on Saturday, 23rd November 2019, to be hosted this year by Torpoint & District Old Cornwall Society. It is to take place at Torpoint Community College between 10:00am and 4:30pm.

The festival will offer:

In the morning, from 10:00am - a range of displays and stalls. As there is plenty of room we anticipate a good number of them.

And in the afternoon, starting with the opening ceremony, banner parade and so on at 1:10pm -

- A short illustrated talk about Torpoint from Rosemary Pellew of the Torpoint Archive
- Torpoint College Show Band
- Moe Keast's tales
- Reflections Mixed Choir, with singalong of Cornish songs

It promises to be a very enjoyable occasion.

The cost of entry tickets is just £6.00, which will include drinks and a saffron bun; a beef or vegetarian pasty will be £3.00 extra.

What you need to do to attend:

A booking form and an outline programme are circulated with this invitation, and I should be grateful if the process is started as soon as possible. Please collect and submit the names of those members of your society wishing to attend, together with a payment cheque to cover them all.

I hope for your full support in making sure that your society's banner is in attendance. If your regular banner bearer is unable to be there, do please make a genuine effort to find someone else to represent your society.

Once again we should be grateful if societies would contribute raffle prizes.

Please note that the final date for booking is 9th November, and so you have just over 10 weeks to collect the names of those wishing to attend and to send your cheque to Carina Davies. I look forward very much to seeing you all at Torpoint.

Yours sincerely

Karin Easton, President
